

U.S. Relief Executive Jailed By Hungarians

Police Do Not Disclose Charges

Budapest, Hungary, Dec. 17 —(AP)—Hungarian authorities have jailed Israel Jacobson, director of the Hungarian division of the American Joint Distribution Committee, U. S. Minister Nathaniel P. Davis said tonight. It was the second arrest of an American here in a month.

American officials have been denied permission to see Jacobson and the charges have not been disclosed.

The AJDC is a Jewish relief agency. The communist government outlawed immigration to Israel the first of the year, despite Israeli protests, and later imprisoned a group of Hungarian Zionist leaders on charges of assisting Jews to get out of this country illegally.

Arrested Last Week
Jacobson, 37, has headed the AJDC office here since September, 1947. He was arrested Thursday upon returning to Hungary from Vienna, Austria, after a leave in the United States.

U. S. legation sources said the Hungarians so far have refused to permit them to visit another American, Robert A. Vogel, 38, of New York, who was arrested Nov. 18 on charges of spying and sabotage.

The government announced Nov. 22 that Vogel, an assistant vice president of the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation, and a Briton and a Hungarian held with him had confessed.

Informed western sources in Vienna said they believed Jacobson might be accused before a Budapest people's court of helping Hungarian Jews to get to Israel. The AJDC was mentioned in the Budapest trial of the Zionist leaders last July, but Jacobson himself was not involved.

Case For State Dept.
Harold Trobe, Vienna director of the AJDC, said the agency's Paris headquarters had been notified of Jacobson's arrest and he assumed the case would be taken up with the U. S. state department.

American legation officials in Vienna reported they had taken no action so far in the case. They were informed of the arrest when they checked with the Hungarian foreign office to determine why Jacobson, who crossed the Austrian-Hungarian border by car at 11 a.m. Thursday, had failed to show up at his Budapest office on schedule.

Trobe said Jacobson was picked up when he returned to Budapest, the Hungarian capital, after a six-week leave in the United States—his first trip home since he was assigned to Hungary in September, 1947. He had left Budapest to visit Vienna only twice during the period. Jacobson and Vogel probably were acquainted, Trobe said, but probably were not close friends. He said he did not believe there was any connection between the two arrests.

Says Pittsburgh Coal Supply Near Critical Stage

Pittsburgh, Dec. 17—(AP)—An industry spokesman said today the soft coal supply in this heavily industrialized area "is rapidly approaching the crisis stage."

J. Don Horner, president of the Retail Coal Merchants' Association, blamed government "inaction" as well as the United Mine Workers' John L. Lewis for the area's "desperate need" for the vital fuel.

Horner said a survey by the association disclosed that the current-directed three-day work week in the mines is insufficient to take care of the normal peak winter needs of consumers.

He said the "fact that John L. Lewis is imposing a monopoly limitation on the right to produce needed goods" has been ignored by the government.

Robber Corrects Article About Him

Edmonton, Alta., Dec. 17—(AP)—The Edmonton Journal reproduced today a letter whose writer claimed he robbed an electric shop last Monday of $200.

The burden of his complaint was that the Journal, in its stories of the robbery, gave the bandit's age as between 45 and 50. The letter writer (he didn't sign any name) declared with some heat:

"The bandit will be 34 years old on Jan. 14th and doesn't look a day older."

CIO REPORTS WORTH
Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—The CIO reported today that its net worth was $1,480,313.07 on Sept. 30. That was an increase of $157,175.03 over the figure a year earlier.

Reports Yen Resigns As National Premier

Taipei, Formosa, Dec. 17—(AP)—Resignation of Yen Hsi-Shan as premier of nationalist China was reported tonight by a reliable source. If accepted, his retirement is expected to mark a sweeping change in government personnel with the aim of wooing new American support against the rampant communists.

(Resignation of Yen also would weaken the connections of acting President Li Tsung-Jen, now in New York for treatment of an ulcer.)

(Li appointed Yen premier last June, and upon leaving China a fortnight ago he designated Yen to handle the presidential duties. Thus if Yen is out, it means that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek is back in the saddle more firmly than at any time since he "retired" as president last January.)

(Yen and Chiang always have been on seemingly friendly terms, however, and Yen has been pictured in the past as trying to heal the split between Chiang and Li.)

Discussed as possible successors to the premiership were Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi, one of the nationalists' best military commanders, now on Hainan island; Wang Shieh-Chieh, former foreign minister and now a close adviser to Chiang Kai-Shek; and former Premier Chang Chun, another strong supporter of Chiang.

Cleveland Fire Causes Million Dollar Damages

Cleveland, Dec. 17—(AP)—A disastrous Central Market fire was brought under control tonight after causing damage which a battalion chief estimated at "up to $1,000,000."

First of five alarms came at 9:02 p.m. In the hour and three-quarters that followed before the flames were checked, three firemen were slightly burned and a pump was destroyed. The historic Central Market building is located about one-fourth mile south and a little east of Public Square. Most of the damage figure estimate, made by Battalion Chief Bernard W. Mulcahy, involved water and fire damage to other buildings in the vicinity.

Cause of the fire had not been determined officially, but Frank Vanario, 30, owner of a nearby cafe, said he saw trash burning in an ash can and the fire reaching a wooden support of the 93-year-old frame market building.

Narcotics Agents Seize 25 Persons In Chicago Ring

Chicago, Dec. 17—(AP)—Federal narcotics agents, brought here from all parts of the country, seized more than 25 persons last night in the biggest roundup of dope peddlers in Chicago's history.

Agents did not disclose exactly how many persons were arrested in the continuing raids. However, a federal grand jury voted 27 indictments yesterday naming between 80 and 120 persons suspected of importation or distribution of drugs. The indictments and the persons named in them were suppressed, pending the arrests.

U. S. Attorney Otto Kern, Jr., and Robert W. Artz, agent in charge of the Chicago narcotics office, said they had been laying the groundwork for the raid for four months. Preparations included dope purchases, arrangements for future sales and making contacts with known narcotics users.

Nation Helps Kitty Hawk Celebrate Airplane's Birth

Kitty Hawk, N.C., Dec. 17—(AP)—A grateful nation today remembered the Wright Brothers on the 46th anniversary of the flight that gave the world dominion over the air.

A host of national government and aviation officials joined residents of this tiny, isolated community in special ceremonies commemorating the history-making flight. They paid tribute to Wilbur and Orville Wright around the monument that marks their flight aloft lonely, windswept Kitty Hawk Hill on North Carolina's outer banks.

The Air Force and the postoffice department stepped in to make air-mail history for the occasion. They shot a letter to Dayton, Ohio, the home of the Wrights, and back. The letter, carried by an air force pet fighter, made the 1,000 miles in two hours and a half of actual flying time.

The letter bore the first cancelled stamp of the new, six-cent air-mail issue that the postoffice department is using in honor of the Wrights. Kitty Hawk's tiny fourth class post-office soon had more than 400,000

3 Killed As Auto Plunges Into Ditch North Of Joliet

Joliet, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—An automobile went out of control on a highway 14 miles north of Joliet today and plunged into a ditch, killing three of the four occupants.

Killed in the accident were two Chicagoans, Anson Cherry, 26, of 5508 Kimbark avenue and Thomas M. Killick, 25, 2632 Devon avenue, and Miss Dorothy Margaret McMahon, 30, of Crestline, Ohio.

Cherry was the grandson of Pop Anson, former player-manager of the Chicago Cubs in the 1880's. Cards found on the body of Killick indicated he formerly lived in Burlington, Va., and was a member of the Veterans Club of Burlington.

The fourth passenger, John B. Mayor, 26, of Elmhurst, Ill., was critically injured. Identification of all was made from personal papers.

Edward Zulegar, of Chicago, a truck driver, told police he saw the car swerve off the highway and plow into a ditch at the intersection of State Routes 66 and 53. He said the car rolled over several times, tossing all of the occupants from the vehicle.

Trim 270 Relief Recipients From Rolls In Illinois

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Names of 270 relief recipients were trimmed from Southern Illinois rolls in the last two months, the Illinois public aid commission reported today.

The cuts were made in 11 Franklin and two St. Clair county townships. The commission estimated persons removed were drawing state-local allotments at the rate of $72,000 a year.

IPAC's recently launched effort "to clean out anyone who doesn't legitimately belong on relief" is paralleling a drive to shrink expenses for helping the aged, dependent children and blind.

At the present rate of spending, the commission will exhaust funds for the two years ending June 30, 1951, well before the period ends. It is trying to stretch available dollars.

Chairman Henry F. Tenney said study of relief rolls in the two southern counties will be systematically extended until cases of all 106,000 persons getting state relief money have been reexamined.

So far, the number of clients dropped represents about 16 percent of those studied, he said.

STEVENS ON TALK ON RADIO

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Governor Stevenson will review his first year in office in a half hour radio talk over a 50-station network Jan. 2.

His office said today the exact time of the broadcast and the lineup of stations will be announced later.

First President Of U.S. Of I. Is Sworn In Office

Jogjakarta, Java, Dec. 17—(AP)—President Soekarno of the United States of Indonesia was sworn into office under a Moslem oath today and received his first 21-gun salute.

Rumors he declared himself "the servant of the people, not their master" and appealed to the world "to clasp hands with this newly born country that wants to determine its own fate."

He raised the historic "proclamation flag"—a red and white banner of the Indonesian Republic which he first unfurled at his bungalow in Batavia Aug. 17, 1945, in a declaration of independence from the Netherlands. Then he led a motor procession to a cemetery where Indonesian guerrilla fighters are buried. There he scattered flower petals over the graves of men who died in nearly four and a half years of warfare.

Illinois News Briefs

Chicago, Dec. 17—(AP)—An order requiring the Illinois Bell Telephone company to reduce its charges within the state is being sought by an attorney for the Progressive party. Attorney Harry Booth yesterday filed a motion with the Illinois Commerce Commission for an immediate hearing on a complaint that intrastate rates are 10 to 15 per cent higher than interstate charges.

Kankakee, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Charles A. Voorhees, 89, mayor of Bradley, Kankakee county, from 1904 to 1914, died today at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Vernon McBroom, in Kankakee.

He was a resident of Bradley for 55 years and once served as postmaster. He headed the David Bradley plow factory.

Antioch, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Old age has taken the life of 13-year-old King Bessie Senator, champion Holstein bull which sired 170 blue-blooded descendants.

The bull, valued at more than $50,000 died last night on Ravenglen farm near here.

Chicago, Dec. 17—(AP)—Chicago area milk producers will receive a uniform blended price of $3.80 per hundredweight for all their November deliveries, the federal milk market administrator announced today.

This is three cents less than the October blended price and 44 cents under the blended price to producers for November, 1948, deliveries.

Carlinville, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Funeral services will be held tomorrow in St. Paul's Episcopal church here for Dr. John Denby, 78, banker and retired physician.

He died yesterday. Dr. Denby had been president of the Farmers and Merchants' Bank of Carlinville since 1923 when he retired from the practice of medicine. He also was president of the Macoupin county sanitarium board.

The fourth passenger, John B. Mayor, 26, of Elmhurst, Ill., was critically injured. Identification of all was made from personal papers.

Edward Zulegar, of Chicago, a truck driver, told police he saw the car swerve off the highway and plow into a ditch at the intersection of State Routes 66 and 53. He said the car rolled over several times, tossing all of the occupants from the vehicle.

Mrs. Jenkins alleged negligence on the railroad's part in the 1947 death of her husband, Bert, who died after a fall from the top of a C & M hopper car near a Kincaid mine. Jenkins, a railroad employee, was helping switch cars at the time. The suit asked $75,000.

Belleville, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Circuit Judge Edward F. Bareis sentenced Paul M. Wellmuenster of Macoupin, Ill., to the Illinois state penitentiary for two to five years yesterday.

Wellmuenster pleaded guilty to a charge of attempted murder in the beating of Peter Obernagel, 9, Belleville farmer, Oct. 9 during an attempted robbery. Floyd M. Warren of New Baden, Ill., received the same sentence last week after his plea of guilty in the same case.

President Praises Navy's Undersea Warfare Training

Key West, Fla., Dec. 17—(AP)—President Truman today described the navy's undersea warfare training as "one of the greatest necessities of our national defense program."

His Florida vacation drawing near a close—the president, looking tanned and rested, but definitely plump—paid tribute to the "Sonarman" as one of the key figures in the anti-submarine forces.

The commander-in-chief handed out diplomas to 36 graduates of the U. S. Fleet Sonar school here, shaking hands and saluting each in turn. Meanwhile, some of the president's party disclosed that he expects to name a chairman of the National Securities Resources Board in January.

The post has been vacant since the resignation of Arthur M. Hill several months ago.

Competition Expected To Reduce Impact Of Steel Price Increase

New York, Dec. 17—(AP)—Steel fed the fires of inflation this week.

The nation's biggest steelmaker hiked prices an average of $4 a ton. And you were warned that almost everything you buy may cost more as a result.

But there is considerable evidence that the full effect of U. S. Steel's price advance may be softened before it nicks your pocketbook.

In a general way, this is because many economists see 1950 as a buyer's market. And under those conditions competition, rather than material costs, will call the price tune.

Most fabricators of steel (producers who use the metal in some stage of the manufacture of a variety of consumer articles from pins to automobiles) have enjoyed relatively good earnings in the post-war period to date. The increased

Stevenson Backs Kennelly Board On Superhighway

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Governor Stevenson today expressed confidence that Mayor Kennelly's board to review superhighway land transactions in Chicago will protect the public interest on both state and city levels.

Kennelly set up the board yesterday. Its approval will be required on all future property purchases for development of the congress street superhighway. It will reexamine transactions already made.

The state's interest in the superhighway project stems from a 1945 agreement under which the city of Chicago, Cook county and the state each agreed to be responsible for acquisition of allotted sections of the right-of-way.

Widepread attention was focused on superhighway land transactions following the disclosure early this week that Jacob M. Arvey, Cook county Democratic chairman, was part owner of a large block of property acquired after it was condemned.

California Invokes Stricter Penalties For Sex Criminals

Sacramento, Calif., Dec. 17—(AP)—The state legislature decided today to invoke stricter penalties—including the death sentence—against sex criminals.

The senate gave unopposed approval to a series of bills aimed at psychopaths who prey on women and children. The assembly already has passed similar or identical measures.

Under these bills the death of a child under 14 as a result of a sex offense could be defined as first degree murder. As such it could be punishable by death in the gas chamber. Prosecutors would not be required to prove premeditation as a necessary factor in first degree murder.

The measure also would require registration of sex criminals, send second-offense molesters of children to prison for five years and double the present 10-year sentence for crimes against nature.

Freezing Rain Is Forecast For Big Part Of Midwest

By The Associated Press
A forecast Saturday of light rain and freezing temperatures brought the threat of hazardous road conditions for a large section of the midwest.

Forecasters said there was some chance that glazing conditions would develop over Saturday night in parts of Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Indiana and lower Michigan.

Light snow fell Saturday in Minnesota, North Dakota and Montana while the higher elevations in Idaho and Nevada were whipped by snow flurries. Rain was general in the Mississippi Valley and on the Pacific coast from California northward.

Temperatures were mild in the central and lower Mississippi valleys and eastward to the Appalachians. Seasonal temperatures prevailed in the east but cold weather was general in the northern plains and Pacific states.

TO SEEK TO EXTEND PEACETIME DRAFT

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—Extension of the peacetime draft law for another three years will be sought by the administration from the session of congress which starts next month. Secretary of Defense Johnson and Secretary of State Acheson are expected to defend its need as part of the effort to combat Communism.

cost of steel represents only a small part of the retail prices of their products.

Faced with keen competition they might choose to absorb some of the higher steel price if by doing so they could keep their sales and production at high, and profitable, levels.

No major producer immediately followed this week's price action by U. S. Steel. Most of them said they were studying the new schedules and would make their decisions later.

They could be playing a waiting game to see the extent of political reaction to the announcement. In Washington Senator Joseph O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.), said his joint congressional economic committee probably will investigate the price move after Christmas. He made clear his own feeling that the increase was unjustified.

President Benjamin F. Fairless of U. S. Steel said the price revisions "reflect actual and approaching changes in the cost of production, including the substantial higher costs to result when our new insurance and pension programs become effective."

An estimate that the insurance-pension benefits gained by the CIO Steelworkers after the recent strike would cost $4 a ton has not been challenged by the corporation. On this basis, the price boosts exactly balances the added labor costs.

Investigate Death Of Youth Found Under Parked Car

Zion, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Authorities are investigating the death of a young Purdue graduate whose body, burned about the head and shoulders, was found this morning under a parked automobile.

He was John Lawrence Larson, who lived with his wife, Marjorie, and her father, Charles Demikas, at 1520 South 49th street in Cicero, Ill. Sheriff Stanley Christian said Larson's head and shoulders apparently had been in a cardboard box, charred remnants of which were found attached to the car's exhaust pipe.

All but a fragment of the box had burned, possibly from the heat of the exhaust, the sheriff said. Coroner Garfield Leaf said Larson was graduated from Purdue last August, and had worked for the Victor Adding Machine Company until a few days ago, when he quit his job.

The car was found about 9 a. m. in a lonely wooded spot near Bartlett's Beach on the Lake Michigan shore. Leaf said Larson probably had been dead since around midnight.

The coroner had set no date for an inquest. He said he was waiting for the sheriff to complete his investigation.

Quakes Terrorize City In Chile

Punta Arenas, Chile, Dec. 17—(AP)—Earthquake shocks over a nine-hour period terrorized inhabitants of this southernmost city in the world today.

There was some property damage—toppled walls and cracked buildings—but no human casualties. Intense rain which lasted 24 hours added to the discomfort of residents. The tremors were felt throughout Magallanes province and also in Argentina's territory of Tierra del Fuego.

Some Think Split Coming Between China Reds, Russia

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—High American officials are convinced that a split is developing between the communist China and Moscow over control of Manchuria.

They expressed belief today that this is probably an issue of major importance in the current Moscow talks of Generalissimo Stalin and Chinese Red leader Mao Tse-tung.

It is also regarded here as a point of tremendous value in the shaping of a new American policy for fighting Russian—directed communism throughout the Far East, including China.

For while American policy makers believe that Mao and Stalin will do everything possible to minimize the effects of their natural conflict of interests in Manchuria, they also believe that the split will get wider.

Mao's Moscow trip is viewed here as being well-timed to provide a close Russian-Chinese study of several vital problems with which the Russian-communist world of the Far East is now confronted as a result of Mao's conquest of all China. Among the most important of these problems as they are seen by state department officials are these:

1. How can Russia and the new China demonstrate complete solidarity? This is expected to be accomplished by a Sino-Russian treaty of friendship and possibly by a treaty of alliance.

Steel users' costs may be boosted by a quarter of a billion dollars over the full year, if the action of U. S. Steel is followed by the rest of the industry.

At the mill level, according to American Iron and Steel Institute estimates, the cost of steel used in an automobile would be raised around $7 (although above-average revisions in extra charges probably would lift this figure somewhat). Other boosts: refrigerator, 40 cents; medium farm tractor, $3; large kitchen cabinet, 27 cents.

However, the effect of these can snowball into larger figures as the steel passes through the hands of fabricators.

The cost of raw steel is translated into higher prices at each stage of semi-finished and finished products; as these are turned into consumer goods, each manufacturer tacks on a boost to maintain his profit margin.

State Department Cautions Ships To Bypass Shanghai

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—The State department cautioned all American ships today to avoid the port of Shanghai as a danger zone.

The port is held by the Chinese Communists. It is blockaded by Chinese Nationalist naval units—gunboats and destroyer escorts for the most part. The United States never has formally recognized the blockade, proclaimed by the Nationalists last summer.

Two American flag vessels, operated by the Isbrandtsen Steamship Co. of New York, have been shelled by Nationalist naval units in recent weeks.

The latest United States move was seen as an effort to discourage the Isbrandtsen line from sending its vessels into the zone of danger. Secretary of State Acheson has tried—but apparently failed—to obtain assurances from the Nationalist government that there would be no further attacks on American ships.

Negro Who Escaped Alabama Prison Is Caught In Oak Park

Chicago, Dec. —(AP)—A negro picked up on suspicion was identified by police today as an escapee from an Alabama prison camp.

He is Edmond Barlow, 22, arrested Thursday in suburban Oak Park. Barlow's fingerprints were sent to the Chicago Bureau of Identification as a matter of routine. However, no previous record was found and he was charged with disorderly conduct and released on $200 real estate bond put up by relatives here.

Before the hearing on the disorderly conduct charge, a notice was received that Barlow had fled from Camp Summit, an Alabama prison camp, three months ago while serving the third year of a 15-year sentence for robbery.

When Barlow arrived at Oak Park police court for the hearing, he was taken into custody and informed of the Alabama charge. Police Sgt. Robert Chester said Barlow then admitted he had fled from the camp by hacking off his leg irons, eluding armed guards and bloodhounds, and swimming across the Alabama river.

He is held in the Oak Park jail pending word from Alabama authorities.

Mass Civil Rights Trial Of 10 Men Ends In Mistrial

Rome, Ga., Dec. 17—(AP)—The mass civil rights trial of ten men with its tales of seven flogged negroes and riding Klux Klansmen ended in a mistrial today.

The decision was made by U. S. District Judge Frank A. Hopper after jury foreman Herman D. Casey, Jr., Rome auto salesman, announced a hopeless deadlock.

Casey said that since the first ballot the jury had been divided seven for conviction, five for acquittal.

The jury returned to the courtroom precisely 48 hours after the case was received at 1:45 p. m. (CST) Thursday.

Defense Attorney Frank M. Gleason of Rossville, Ga., said, "I think it is a signal victory for the defense." As for the defendants, they received the decision with little expression, fully aware they still are subject to further prosecution.

U. S. District Attorney J. Ella Mundy could not be reached for comment.

The Norbury Sanatorium, cooperative observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau, yesterday reported the temperatures for Saturday as follows: High, 44; low, 30; and at 6 p. m., 38. Sunset today, 4:39; sunrise Monday, 7:14.

Forecast for Illinois—Occasional rain, slightly colder today. Possible glazing of highways. High 40 to 44.

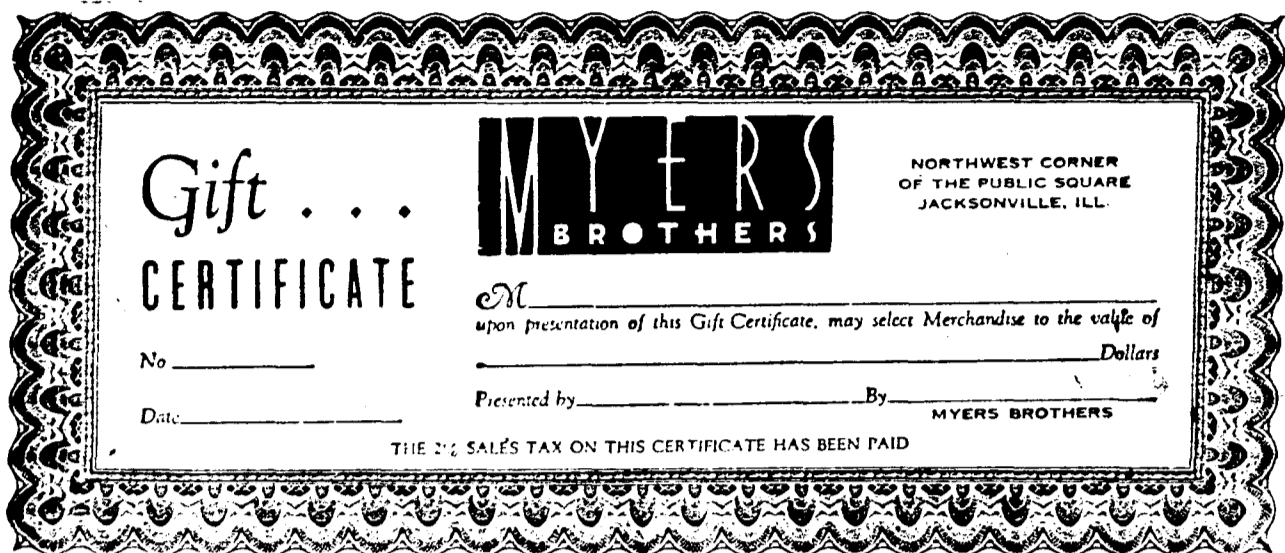

FBI Agent Testifies Before Group

AUSTRALIA DIDN'T NECESSARILY REJECT WELFARE STATE THEME

For the second time in about two weeks, a Labor government entrenched for many years has been beaten at the polls. But before we call it a trend, we ought to examine the circumstances.

On Nov. 30 New Zealand voters tossed out the Labor Party which had governed that island nation for 14 straight years. On Dec. 10 the same fate came to the Australian Labor government after eight years in office.

The almost inevitable reaction to these results will be great rejoicing among champions of free enterprise and predictions that Britain's Labor government will be the next to fall. But the facts are not quite that simple.

A look at the outcome in Australia will show us why we have to be cautious in appraising it. In the first place, nationalization was not an issue—as it would be in Britain. The Australian constitution forbids the nationalizing of industry. So in the strictest sense it was not socialism that was being voted upon.

The Labor government had sponsored a broad program of pensions, child endowments and other social benefits; hence it bore strong resemblances to the welfare state so much discussed in our own country.

But the hitch is that neither the Liberal nor the Country Parties, the two which in combination unseated Australia's Labor group, proposed to eliminate or even to trim these benefits. Thus if the real danger from "big government" lies in the establishment and growth of such welfare features, the new leaders presumably will not do much to arrest that trend.

What did the candidates talk about? The successful challengers demanded a "return to free enterprise," promised to overhaul tax laws, urged the importation of more gasoline and an end to its rationing, and called for the outlawing of the Communist Party.

Either the voters found these demands and pledges attractive or they somehow decided that the challengers were desirable merely because they were different and a change was needed.

Whichever is the correct view, the conclusion must be about the same: the Labor Party was turned out because Australians are fed up with shortages and controls and the men whom they hold responsible for them; they obviously don't want to part with their social benefits, but they do want a fresh approach to their problems.

Some such feeling must have been at work, for the voters switched allegiance despite the fact that the nation is prosperous and there is full employment buttressed by high wages. Seldom in the United States is a party thrown out of power when times are good.

An overturn under these conditions is impressive. And yet, as observed earlier, there is no evidence that a big reversal of fundamental welfare state trends is in prospect.

Those who wish to hail the result as an important first step toward a reversal are going out on a slender limb. Most outsiders probably will prefer to adopt a "wait and see" attitude.

Caution demands watching further happenings in Australia and standing by to see whether or not the elections there and in New Zealand may indeed be the start of a real rebound that will be reflected in Britain's voting next summer.

THE DOCTOR SAYS:

Accident Prone
People Should Be Pointed Out

BY EDWIN P. JORDAN, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Accidents of all kinds are responsible for many deaths and cases of invalidism each year. Nearly every general hospital has many patients in it all the time who have been injured in one way or another—and many could have been prevented.

Some people seem to be particularly likely to be involved in accidents. In recent years the person who shows special liability to accidents has been called an "accident-prone" individual.

An example recently quoted is interesting. In the state of Connecticut, a six-year study showed that about 4 per cent of drivers of automobiles involved in traffic accidents are involved in more than one-third of all such accidents. The same thing applies in industry. For example, a large trucking company has reduced its accident rate to one-fifth of its previous record merely by discovering those drivers who were accident prone and by transferring them to other duties.

Endangers Us All
All this may mean life or death to the rest of us because at any time we may get tangled up at a stop light with someone who just cannot stay out of trouble. This was only too well shown not long ago in the death of Margaret Mitchell, the author of "Gone With the Wind," who was hit by an automobile driven by someone who had a long record of traffic trouble.

There are ways of picking these dangerous people out. It has been pointed out, for example, that the accident-prone individual is "decisive or even impulsive. He (or she) concentrates upon immediate pleasures or satisfactions and is apt to act upon the spur of the moment." This accident-prone person has an instinct of rebellion and resentment and demonstrates the "show-off" and "don't-give-a-damn" type of psychology.

THE STORY OF THE SAVIOR

Joseph had been warned. The angel of the Lord, appearing to him in a dream, bade him take the baby and Mary and flee into Egypt. (Matthew 2:13.)

The Flight Into Egypt

They remained there until Herod's death, when again an angel appeared in a dream and told Joseph to take his family into the land of Israel. (Matthew 2:19, 20.)

After much thought, Joseph decided to go back to Nazareth to live. There he resumed his trade of carpenter.

The Pennies Don't Always Add Up

By Hal Boyle

New York—(P)—Once upon a time there was a young man who was a tower of strength.

He had the stride of a panther, his cheeks were ruddy with health, his grip was firm. He never got upset over trifles.

He never told his friends the source of his own inner serenity—which was a weight machine in a drugstore near his office. This machine-age oracle told him all he felt he needed to know—for one cent.

Whatever the machine told him to do, he did. He had absolute faith in it.

Then he met a pretty girl on a blind date and wondered whether he ought to marry her. He put it up to the machine.

"You have a strong intuition which often causes you to form the right opinion of people at first sight," it said.

So he popped the question, the girl said yes, and he gave a $1,500 engagement ring. The same day a middle-aged man at the desk next to him put a proposition to him: "Look I've got a chance to make a real killing on a once-in-a-lifetime investment. Lend me $1,000 for a week and I'll double it for you."

Out slipped our buddy and relayed his problem to the machine. It replied:

"You will stick to your friends even if the whole world is against them. A friend has a real pal in you."

So he drew out his last $1,000 from the bank and loaned it to his friend. The next week his girl ran off with another fellow, taking along his 1,500 ring. And the "Pal" he had advanced the $1,000 to confessed he had lost it on a horserace and could not pay him back.

On his way to work the sad young man decided he'd have to ask for a raise to recoup his finances. But should he? He dropped a penny in the drugstore scales, and got back a card saying:

"You are faithful to your employer and take pride in doing everything conscientiously and to perfection." Relieved, he hit the boss up immediately, and the boss said:

"You certainly are worth more money, son, but not here. As a matter of fact you are fired."

Trembling and miserable, the young man ran back to the drugstore. He stepped on the scales, feverishly searched his pockets and found—one last penny. He dropped it in the slot. Nothing happened. The young man shook the machine. Then he began to scream and to kick it. Then some cops came and held him. And then two men

Make-Up Set Cuts Clutter

This teen-ager's way of coping with handbag clutter is to use a compact to which an easy-to-pull-out lipstick is attached.

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Always diving into the bottom of your handbag in search of that elusive lipstick?

The way out of that dilemma is to carry one anchored to your compact.

If a timely hint to Santa puts one of the new lipstick and compact combinations in your Christmas sock, you can consider yourself lucky on two counts. The two accessories make a handsome team, which any girl is proud to pull out of her handbag. The tandem makes it easier to find the elusive lipstick and at the same time provides a convenient mirror for applying it.

Trick feature of this gadget which girls will like is that the compact opens when the lipstick pulls out. Closed, the metal edge of the lipstick keeps the lid of the compact firmly locked and the powder inside safe from spillage.

Antidotes For Neck Neglect

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Question: "I've just noticed that my chin-line has begun to sag. Is there anything I can do to hold the line?"

Answer: Yes, here's a three-point routine: Exercise to strengthen muscles, massage to improve their tone, and posture to keep chine and neck in better alignment.

Since no chin-line can miss being blurred if you duck into your collar, you should make sure that, first of all, you're holding your head erect.

It's possible to do that, even when you bend over your work.

A good trick of conscious control—needed sometimes until good posture becomes an automatic reaction—is to imagine that a taut string is attached to the top of your head and is directly tethered to the spot on the ceiling under which you sit or stand. Think of the string, and you'll even find it difficult to spoil the line of your chin.

"As for exercise, every day should be moving day for neck muscles when they begin to lose their grip. Almost any exercise is good exercise—opening your mouth wide and gritting your teeth; chinning an imaginary bar; pulling a dangling head up to shoulder level as you lie on your bed—provided movement isn't jerky and they're worked up slowly. The important thing is to be unremittingly faithful to the exercises that you like.

"Massaging the neck and chin will be helpful because manipulation is another form of exercise for the muscles. The upward and outward stroke of the two palms—the right one massaging the left side of the throat, the left one the right side in alternate slaps—is the best technique to use. The cream needed to give slide to your massaging hands will also do its bit to keep skin supple and resistant to crepeiness when, at some future date, that, too, becomes a beauty threat.

COLOR PARADE

Bright red resembling Chinese vermilion or scarlet is being used as an accent in homes in increasing numbers today. Gay hues such as citron and pale mustard are other colors which will be popular this year. Clear blue without a purplish cast also is getting a play. Chocolate or cocoa brown is smart and sophisticated for walls of modern or semi-modern interiors.

Almonds, pecans, and walnuts are all suitable for poultry stuffing. Add the nuts to the stuffing just before putting it into the fowl.

Glamorize Gray Hair With Glitter Dust

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

A sprinkling of bright silver dust is the newest way to glamorize gray hair. The glittery stuff, made of tinselly shavings, can be dusted over a completed coiffure to turn the dull, est hair into a shining nimbus. Glitter is applied salt-shaker style from a canister.

New York's John Hall, who treats many a silvery crest to this glitter trick, advises using lacquer, sprayed lightly, before silver dust is applied. Then, says this hairdresser, there'll be no flying particles when a lady dances.

When the dust has been shaken over the hair, the hair should be combed—not brushed—lightly. If the hair isn't silvery enough to suit, there can be another sprinkling and another combing. Two light applications are better than a single heavy one. The glamor dust should be applied evenly rather than in patchy effects. It is not meant to be used to create silver streaks, or to even up the light-and-dark effects of graying hair.

When a gala evening is over, a thorough job with a well-bristled brush will take that dust right out of a woman's hair.

Step Ahead On Foot Care Well Before Gala Evening

BY ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

One way to keep the stag line moving your way is to go on the dance floor with feet unburdened of corns and calluses.

Best way to get rid of corns until you can switch to a change of properly fitting shoes—the only correct way to banish these pests—is removal with canker-scissors.

Never remove with a razor blade, podiatrists warn. These experts of the American Foot Care Institute also warn you to trim carefully and avoid digging. Cutting too deeply is what invites trouble.

After trimming, apply a small felt corn pad, one with the center cut out. This will ease shoe pressure; provide comfort.

If callouses on soles are buffed down with pumice stone, your feet will also feel more like tripping the light fantastic. Best way to shed off sizeable callouses is to buff down gradually after each bath until the tougher layers of cuticle are whetted off.

Trimming nails before a big evening affair can also be an aid to comfort, particularly if toes are so chummy in shoes that the nail of one toe digs into the flesh of another. The experts say that nails should be trimmed straight across; never rounded at the sides or curved into points.

If, when you buy your next shoes, you will remember these expert pointers on fit, you will be a step ahead of corns, at least at the next big dance.

Settle for shoes that are big enough and provide plenty of toe room. See that the foot conforms with the last of the shoe at these points: point of big toe, at heel, and at widest part of foot.

If possible, settle for a pump rather than a sandal. A pump gives more all-round support than a fretwork of straps, podiatrists say.

For a festive topping for brownies mix together a half cup of moist grated coconut and a few tablespoons of sugar; spread over the top of the brownie pan when it comes from the oven and toast under the broiler.

NOVELIST TELLS CHRISTMAS STORY

"I still like Christmas, and I have some humorous memories of it," says Mary Roberts Rinehart, veteran American novelist. "There was the time, for instance, when on discovering my husband was giving me a horse for Christmas, I decided to give him one. It is, however, exceedingly difficult to hide a horse. You cannot put him in a neighbor's kitchen, as we had done with puppies, or hide him under a bed. But we managed somehow and if there was a little relief coupled with our pleasure that Christmas morning, we never said so."

Cranberry juice goes well with cider and orange juice; serve as a first course cocktail.

Romans Introduce Plum Pudding

When England was a wilderness, cleared feudal fortress, Christmas morning was ushered in with a bowl of frumenty. This was a dish of cracked wheat, boiled with broth, milk and eggs. It is believed to have been introduced by the Romans, who first brought the festival of the Nativity to the island. Later cooks added spices and dried fruits. It became known as plum porridge, because of the black plums used, and was the first course of the Christmas dinner. Next lumps of suet were added. Within a half century after the Pilgrims landed in this country, the evolution had produced the plum pudding as we know it today. However, raisins were substituted for plums because they were easier to obtain.

SPEEDING OYSTER GROWTH

Bouzigues, France—(P)—The discovery that oysters grow four times faster in a salt-lake off the Mediterranean than they do on Atlantic Ocean breeding grounds has led to a thriving new industry here.

Four hundred fishermen, linked in a cooperative, have started harvesting the 1949 oyster crop and by April they hope to exceed their 1948 total of 100,000 tons.

The salty basin of Thau, a deep but mud-shored inlet of the Mediterranean, seems to be particularly rich in the tiny amine organisms on which the oyster lives. Each year thousands of marenne oysters are shipped from the Atlantic breeding grounds or Arcachon to this village for the vital stages of their growth. They achieve in less than one year a growth their less lucky fellows take four years to achieve at Arcachon. Then they are shipped back to Arcachon, where they are again submerged in the Atlantic to get the green color which French gourmets require of their marennes.

GREEKS SAIL UNDER FOREIGN FLAGS

Athens—(P)—More than half of the Greek-owned merchant fleet, built up from virtually nothing since 1945 with American aid, today is sailing under foreign flags.

According to ECA figures, of a total of 765 ships, only 317 are sailing under Greek registry, as compared with 338 Greek-registered ships out of 427 in 1939. At the same time, present tonnage has more than doubled over the prewar total of 1,865,146 tons. Deep-sea shipping today stands at 3,878,787 tons.

An agreement with the United States, prior to Marshall plan aid, provided 100 wartime Liberty ships to the Greek government, which in turn sold them to private interests for $560,000 each. Most of the ships were registered in Central American countries.

More than 200 boys, prospective members of the Morgan County Junior Deputy Sheriff's league, gathered at the Times theater Saturday morning, witnessed the showing of two motion pictures and arranged for an organization meeting on Jan. 7 at 2 p.m. at the Morgan county court house.

Sheriff Ralph Bourn, who presided at the meeting, said that more than 300 applications have been filled out by Morgan county boys who are desirous of becoming junior deputies.

Two motion pictures were shown during Saturday's session, a F.B.I. film and a picture, "Crime Does Not Pay," furnished by the Illinois Crime commission.

Sheriff Bourn said that he hoped the organization could be perfected at the next meeting and officers chosen.

One Postmark In Santa Clause, Indiana, But Two Santas

By WILLIAM GRANT

NEA Special Correspondent Santa Claus, Ind.—(NEA)—There are two battle camps in this tiny town, which at this time of the year is supposed to set the pace for peace and good will.

The trouble arises out of an old controversy that now has visitors asking themselves: "Where is Santa Claus?" That there is one, they are sure. They get confused when they find two.

There is Santa Claus Land, where the post office is located. Then, only a mile away, there is Santa Claus, Ind., where the post office used to be.

Between the two, in a vacant lot overrun with weeds, stands a giant stone figure of Santa Claus. He has made his judgment, it seems, for he is looking toward neither town, but up into the heavens.

Heading one of the rival camps is Milton Harris, former Indianapolis lawyer, who in 1934 erected the $60,000 Santa Claus Castle. This is where Santa Claus—Charles Edward Spriggs—lives the year-round.

In the "Night Before Christmas Room" he takes orders from the children. Back of the castle is Santa's workshop. He has about four residents of the town helping him assemble the toys. Visitors are invited to watch as the toys are put together. On the other side of the fence is William Koch, who manages Santa Claus Land, Inc. This is where the post office was moved in 1946, when the old post office building in Santa Claus, Ind., was reported in bad condition.

The post office now sits conveniently between the gift shop and the museum in Koch's ballwick. Santa Claus Land, Inc., five miles from Dale, Ind., is built on three hills. Among its attractions are a gift shop, museum, dining room, toy railroad, the post office, a toy shop and Santa Claus' reindeer building.

Elbert S. Reinke is postmaster at Santa Claus Land. At 30, he is the youngest man to hold the job. Normally only two are employed in the post office, but during the Christmas rush, some 20 extra clerks are hired to help out.

Reinke estimates that 10,000 packages will be sent to the post office this season to be re-mailed with the Santa Claus postmark. The post office will also receive 30,000 letters from children throughout the world. All letters will be answered by Santa Claus. Altogether, some 1,500,000 pieces of mail will be handled.

Santa Claus, Ind., got its name about 1855. The residents decided they wanted a post office for their village, which was called Santafee. What they didn't know was that there already was a Santafee, Ind., with a post office. They were refused the request.

They learned of the turn of events on Christmas Eve. At a gathering that night, a small boy, seeing a star streak across the sky, was supposed to have said: "Look, there goes Santa Claus and his reindeer." The town had a new name, and now it has two Santas.

Carrollton Lions Club Has Annual Christmas Party

Carrollton—The Carrollton Lions club held its annual Christmas party and turkey dinner Thursday evening in the Presbyterian church. Santa Claus was represented at the meeting by Judge G. K. Hutchens and Attorney Jack McDonald and gifts were distributed to the members.

The West End Reading Circle will meet Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 20, at the home of Mrs. A. J. Sharon for a Christmas party. Everyone will take part in the program. Roll call will be answered with "Stories of Jesus."

Members of the East End Reading Circle will not meet until January 9, when they will be entertained at the home of Mrs. Joe Clark. Mrs. Anna Hubbard will give a paper on "Cuba, Country of Surprises."

Elks Will Give Scholarships To Build Leadership

A program to strengthen democracy by developing leadership among America's youth has been launched by the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks, Wilford Queen, exalted ruler of Jacksonville Lodge of Elks, announced Saturday.

Mr. Queen said that, as the first step in the program, the Grand Lodge Activities Committee this year will award eleven $300 college scholarships to boys and girls with the most distinguished records for leadership. One award will be made in each of eleven districts into which the country has been divided for the purpose. The awards will be made to high school seniors who are qualified for college entrance and must be used to finance the first year's college expenses.

"While a boy or girl to be eligible must be scholastically qualified to go to college, the emphasis in this new program is on the qualities of leadership displayed by the applicant rather than on scholastic attainments," Queen pointed out, "which sets this program apart from the usual type of scholarship. Our purpose is to lend encouragement to those youth who have shown that they have a capacity for making great contributions to the betterment of our democratic society, and who deserve financial assistance that will help them to develop that capacity further."

The scholarships will be financed by a grant from the Elks National Foundation, the Order's charitable trust, to the Youth Activities Committee which was established by the Grand Lodge convention at Cleveland last July and given the job of developing a broadened youth program designed to meet today's needs.

These leadership awards are entirely apart from the Elks National Foundation's Most Valuable Student Scholarships granted to financially deserving students with highest scholastic attainments. Under this program, now in its 18th year, the Foundation in July will grant 30 scholarships totaling $12,000 and ranging in value from $800 to $300.

WOODSON WOMEN TO MEET WEDNESDAY

The Woodson Woman's club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Hembrough. A potluck luncheon will be served at 2:30 p. m., with Mrs. Earl Hembrough and Mrs. Ida Megginson as assistant hostesses.

TRY A CLASSIFIED AD

"JUST BLONDES. THAT'S ALL?"—Feeling just a little silly, fraternity pledges Gerry Tuttleman and Bruce Tombaugh visited Santa Claus in a San Francisco department store. Fulfilling the hazing requirements, the pledges stood in line along with the others, and when their turn came surprised Santa by asking for something a little different.

Peoria Man Contributes To Nichols Xmas Fund

The Journal Courier received Saturday a letter from Roy F. Gardner, Peoria, Ill., including a check for $10 as his contribution to the Nichols Foundation. Mr. Gardner heard of the Nichols Foundation while working in Jacksonville.

Mr. Gardner's letter follows:

"Journal Courier Co.,
Jacksonville, Ill.

"Dear Sirs:

"Enclosed find check for $10 for the Nichols Foundation.

"I have been working in Jacksonville for several weeks and have been reading the Daily Journal. I have always been trying to help the children, and I think it would be wonderful if the full $10,000 could be raised.

"I delivered the Chicago Journal during the Spanish American War. The daily paper was delivered for six cents a week and the paper boy got three cents a week if he could collect, but I believe it was not as easy to collect in those days as at present.

"I lived in Mason City, Ill., at that time.

"It is much easier to understand what a nice Christmas means to a child who does not have so much as others, if you were raised in a home like that.

"Believe me, I know.

"Yours Very Sincerely,
Roy F. Gardner,

TREE-CLIMBING DOG FALLS FOR CAT

Costa Mesa, Calif. —(AP)—Pal, a cocker spaniel owned by Neal F. Harrington, was obviously out of his element. Balanced on a slippery branch six feet above the ground, the dog seemed to be weighing the sagacity of pressing his pursuit of the sure-footed cat only a few tempting feet out on the limb. Pal lunged, missed, and thudded to earth.

At a pet hospital, where Pal is nursing a broken leg, Harrington explained that his pooch, an inveterate cat chaser, spied the kitty in a friend's back yard. While the cat scampered up a tree the dog shot up the sloping trunk, following the enemy out on a limb.

"He's a game dog," said Harrington.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Dec. 17—(P)—The quotable top on hogs today was $16.25, ending a week in which small price changes were recorded each day. Cattle and sheep also were quoted nominally steady. Light weight barrows and gilts ended the week 15 to 25 cents higher than last Saturday. The average remained above the government guide of $14.75 each day. This guide will remain unchanged next week. Heavier butchers and sows ended steady. Short fed steers again made up a large part of receipts in the cattle section and prices on these offerings dropped $1 to $3. Better grade steers, still in small supply, ended steady to 50 cents lower. Top was $41.75. With dressed prices dropping sharply, buyers marked down lamb values this week. Final prices were $1 to $1.50 below a week ago.

LARD PRICES HIT NEW HIGH LEVELS

Chicago, Dec. 17—(P)—While grains showed little price change on the Board of Trade today, lard spurted under aggressive buying for a Saturday session. May and July contracts, the ones in which dealings most recently started, scored new seasonal peaks. But the best gain was made by December. Strength of lard in the cash market supported the upturn in futures. Loose lard was bid at $10.12 1/2 a hundred pounds, up 50 cents today and up $1.62 1/2 from the six year low of $8.50 made on Monday. Trade reports said the production and marketing administration had asked for offerings to be submitted early next week. Old crop wheat deliveries showed some strength at the start, but backed down later. A little more activity in domestic flour circles brought about the early gains. New crop wheat deliveries eased from the start on forecasts for rain and snow in the winter wheat belt. Dealings in other grains were slow with little trend shown. Wheat closed unchanged to 1 1/2 lower, December $2.21 1/2; corn was unchanged to 1/2 lower, December $1.29 1/2; oats were 1/2 lower to 1/4 higher, December 77 1/2; rye was 1/4 higher, December $1.42; soybeans were 1/4 lower, December $2.32 1/2; and lard was 7 to 6 cents a hundred pounds higher, December $11.42. Receipts of grain in carlots here today: wheat 12; corn 76; oats 25; rye none; barley 9 and soybeans 8. Receipts include 6 cars of corn on CCC account.

house Saturday morning. The purchaser was Robert Schall. Sixteen acres of timber disposed of at the same sale was purchased by Dwight Kershaw on a bid of $40 an acre. The timber land is also located in the Concord neighborhood. The farm purchased by Mr. Schall has a six room house, good outbuildings and 55 acres of the land is tillable. The sale was conducted by Robert Schall and Marie Reed, owners of the property. Merle Beddingfield was the auctioneer and Robert E. Harmon, attorney.

At the outbreak of World War II he entered military service and was stationed for some months at a southern training camp.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church and Harmony lodge, No. 3, A.F. & A.M.

CHICAGO 7, TORONTO 1

Toronto, Dec. 17—(AP)—Chicago's high-geared offense broke loose with five goals in the third period tonight to smother the Toronto Maple Leafs, 7 to 1, in a National Hockey League game.

SEEK SWEET REVENGE

This veteran starting five of the Shurtleff Pioneers will take the floor against the Illinois college Blueboys in an attempt to get revenge for the defeat handed them by the Miller quintet in the first round of last year's holiday tournament. The crew, from left to right, Ralph Miller, Maurice Jones, Louis Hauser, Robert Poe, and John Logan, average 6-3 and will be prepared to grab their share of the rebounds in the encounter.

By Bob Merris

The Journal-Courier sports pages have taken on new life in the form of cartoons—e.g. the Jacksonville holiday tournament drawing on this page—penned by Orville Baker, Jr., a native of Jacksonville.

All eyes would be on the upcoming Jacksonville-Routt basketball tussle if the fans just knew where to pivot the optics. The only solace that can be offered by officials at the moment is that it definitely will be played in one of three gymnasiums. We could let the boys fight it out in our back alley should the situation get too desperate.

Jacksonville is taking on a heavy diet of the hardwood stuff these days. What, with the IC holiday tourney scheduled for Monday and Tuesday of this week, the intracity prep tangle on Wednesday night and the high school holiday meet at ISD set to go a week from Tuesday, we'd hardly have time to unwind our presents—hint, hint—or sip a jug of egg-nog. (And, it's so nourishing, too.)

Something new has been added to basketball at Chapin, so says Coach Paul Blakezman. The something is donkeys—the long-eared variety. A donkey cage mix is set for Dec. 30 on the Chapin court. Riders from Chapin and Concord will do battle in the hee-haw clash.

A couple of other tournaments are forthcoming. Milton and Virginia have completed drawings for their 15 and 12 year old affairs.

Forest Anderson's worst fears were realized Saturday night when his Bradley Braves were clipped by Purdue of the Big Ten conference. Anderson confided, before the season started, that his Braves would have to win every game or the season would be marked an unsuccessful one. Well, he's lost a game. Now, we're eagerly awaiting the national collegiate basketball ratings to see just how far off center the Peorians rank.

OUTSTANDING ILLINOIS DAIRY HERD PERISHES IN ORION FARM FIRE

Orion, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—An outstanding western Illinois dairy herd perished early today in a fire on a farm near Orion, 10 miles south of Moline.

Nineteen cows, a three-year-old bull and two calves died in the blaze that destroyed the dairy barn. The herd was owned by Glen Rehn.

One of the cows, Rog, was the state's leading producer in 1947 with 11,142 pounds of milk and 717.5 pounds of butterfat.

The flames also consumed 2,000 bales of hay, 50 bales of straw and two tons of ground feed. Rehn said the loss will run into thousands of dollars.

BURMA RECOGNIZES COMMUNIST CHINA

Rangoon, Burma, Dec. 17—(AP)—The Chinese Communist government received diplomatic recognition today from Burma, which counts Communists among the rebels who have been fighting more than a year.

The Burmese Union is believed to be the first nation outside the Communist sphere to give the Peiping regime of Mao Tse-tung such recognition. Mao is now visiting Moscow.

TOWERS OF STRENGTH

BOB MURRIN

DON LONGER

Don Longer and Bob Murrin, rangy Blueboy forward and center, will have their work cut out for them when they attempt to control the backboard play against Shurtleff Monday night. Longer, a three year veteran with the Blueflies and the only senior on the squad, finally hit his scoring stride with 17 counters against Concordia Saturday. Murrin, also in his third year with the I. C. aggregation, turned in one of the best performances of his career in guarding big Ron Goerss of the Preachers in the same game.

Eagles Are 7 Point Favorites To Win NFL Title From Rams 11

Los Angeles, Dec. 17—(AP)—The natives in these sprawling miles of overcrowded real estate known as Greater Los Angeles get their first sight of major league professional football, championship brand, tomorrow.

Upwards of 70,000, barring a turn to poor weather, will get the view, and millions more will listen in as the Los Angeles Rams seek to dethrone a ferocious and feared flock of Eagles from Philadelphia in this 17th annual title clash in the National League.

For four years, in growing numbers, the natives have lived and died with the Rams. The era dates back to 1946 when courageous young Dan Reeves moved the then defending champion Lam franchise from Cleveland to Los Angeles, lock, stock, barrel and Bob Waterfield.

Their big forte is the aerial fireworks designed by T-master Clark Shaughnessy and executed by Waterfield and his rookie replacement, Norman Van Brocklin.

Coach Earle (Greasy) Neale has stamped the Eagles as a dangerous offensive team, featuring Steve Van Buren, Bosh Pritchard, Clyde (Smackover) Scott and Joe Muma on the ground, Tommy Thompson's passing and the all-around play of end Pete Pihos. And Neale has also fashioned one of the best defensive clubs in the business, starring Pihos, Capt. Al Wistert and others up front.

The Eagles' lone loss was to the Bears, 38-21.

RULES PARENTS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR DELINQUENCY OF CHILD

Eugene, Ore., Dec. 17—(AP)—When a child turns into a budding burglar, whose fault is it?

"The parents," decided Eugene's city councilmen this week. And they backed up their decision by passing an ordinance that the parents—not the child—should be punished.

It's fairly stiff punishment, too, up to $200 fine or 100 days in jail for a parent judged responsible for conditions which have led his child into delinquency.

FIRE LEVELS HOUSE NEAR WINCHESTER

Fire completely destroyed the large two story frame farmhouse of John Collen, one half mile northeast of Winchester, at about 12:45 a.m. Sunday. The family, consisting of Mr. Collen, his wife and two children, were awakened by the barking of their dog to find the building in flames. They escaped with what clothing they could manage to seize.

Mr. Collen is a jeweler at Winchester. It is believed that the fire may have been caused by the Christmas tree.

Wildcats Wallop Notre Dame Five In 66-56 Triumph

Chicago, Dec. 17—(AP)—A pair of sharpshooting guards led Northwestern to a 66-56 triumph over Notre Dame in the opener of a basketball doubleheader witnessed by 12,000 at the Chicago Stadium tonight.

Loyola and De Paul met in the second game.

Guard Bob Hughes dropped in eight baskets, five coming in the last half, and his Wildcat backcourt running mate, Jim Barr scored six baskets, all in the first half to get Northwestern off to a good start.

Northwestern center Don Blasius also matched Hughes' 16 points to share scoring honors, but it was the deadly shooting of the two Wildcat guards that demoralized the Irish. Hughes got his eight baskets on 13 shots.

In sweeping to its third win against one defeat, Northwestern fashioned a 38-31 halftime lead. Midway in the final half, the Wildcats zipped to a 19-point advantage, 59-40. The spasmodic Irish, suffering their second defeat in three starts this season, were led by sophomore guard Don Strasser and forward Dan Bagley with 13 points each.

In the first 10 minutes, the lead changed hands eight times before Northwestern went out in front for keeps at 14-13.

The Wildcats hit on 27 of their 71 field shots, while Notre Dame connected on 20 of 75.

Eastern Illinois Wins NAIB Meet With 68-61 Victory

Kansas City, Dec. 17—(AP)—Eastern Illinois won the championship of the National Association of Intercollegiate Basketball tournament here tonight by defeating Regis College 68 to 61.

Tom Katsimpalis, with his fade-away pivot shots working to perfection, made 24 points for the Illinois team.

West Texas State won the consolation game with Baldwin-Wallace, of Berea, Ohio, 64 to 56.

Eastern Illinois at one point in the first half held a 16-point lead and finished that session ahead 36-27.

Regis rallied in the last half and twice teetered just a point away a tie. Each time, however, Eastern Illinois pulled out and was going strong at the finish.

Shurtleff Downs Oakland 78-65

Oakland City, Ind., Dec. 17—(AP)—Shurtleff College ran up a big lead over a shorter Oakland City team and outlasted an Oak rally tonight for a 78-65 basketball victory.

The Illinois school led 46-28 at the half.

Hubert Daugherty of Oakland City was high scorer of the game with seven fielders and seven free throws for 21 points.

Robert Poe scored 18 for Shurtleff but Ralph Miller contributed 17 and Don Gunder added 16 in the balanced attack.

Printing Company President Dies

Champaign, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Charles Moffat Pearson, 76, president of the Flanagan-Pearson Printing company in Champaign, died today after an illness of more than two years.

The company he and Edwin Flanagan formed in 1910 once operated the Champaign Daily Gazette. After it sold the newspaper, it continued in the job printing and binding business.

Pearson was at various times president of the Chamber of Commerce, community chest family welfare society, McKinley YMCA and Toray club. He is survived by his widow, Mary I. Pearson.

Funeral services will be held Monday.

NEW SCHOOL BUILDING OPEN HOUSE JAN. 8

The public is invited to attend open house on Sunday, Jan. 8, at the new school building located in South Jacksonville. Principal Merle Wade announced Saturday. The hours will be 1-5 p.m.

Classes have been held in the new structure since early this fall, even though the building was not completed. Mr. Wade said he expected it to be "practically finished" by Jan. 8.

REDMEN CHIEFTAIN

Delane (Sparky) Hultman, 6-6

Carthage center is expected to provide the rebounding spark of the Redmen when they square off against Bemidji Teachers in the opening game of the Illinois college invitational tournament at 7 p.m. Monday. New Carthage coach, Loel D. Frederickson, depends upon the janky sophomore to do most of the rebounding for his otherwise small squad.

Detroit Gives Up Wakefield To N.Y. Yanks For Rookie

New York, Dec. 17—(AP)—The Detroit Tigers finally gave up on Dick Wakefield, their high priced problem child, and shipped him to the New York Yankees for rookie first baseman Dick Kryhoski in a trade today.

Wakefield, in July 1941, received $45,000 plus an automobile to sign a Tiger contract while attending the University of Michigan.

The bonus beauty started off brilliantly but following his return from military service in 1946, he has been a sharp disappointment.

The Tigers brought Wakefield up from the minors for the 1949 season and the recruit hit .316 and drove home 79 runs. Wakefield was leading the Tigers to the pennant in 1944 when Uncle Sam drafted him. He was moving at a 355 gait and had driven in 53 runs when summoned to the colors. The St. Louis Browns went on to win the pennant on the last day of the season.

Wakefield returned in 1946 but never again reached the 300 mark. Used infrequently last season, Wakefield wound up with a .206 mark in 59 games.

A chance of scenery may benefit Wakefield whose play drew the ire of Detroit patrons the past four years.

Washington, Dec. 17—(AP)—Labert St. Clair, an industrial counsel and writer, died today. He was 62.

A veteran newspaperman, St. Clair headed the house of representatives staff of the Associated Press for about eight years prior to the first World War. He later wrote a syndicated column. He was the author of several books and numerous magazine articles.

He had gone horseback riding near Vienna, Va., this afternoon, when he fell from his horse and was seen to dismount and crumple. By the time help reached him he was dead. Associates said he had not complained of ill health.

Surviving are his widow, the former Mae G. Dirks, and two daughters, Mrs. Jerome Hardy of New York City and Mrs. Richard West of Decatur, Ill.

Born at Veedersburg, Ind., July 24, 1887, his first occupation was that of buggy painter in 1903. Then he became a country correspondent for the Danville, Ill. Democrat, later one of its local reporters.

WHEATON RACKS UP LITTLE NINE WIN OVER WESLEYAN 56-52

Bloomington, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Wheaton racked its second Little Nine Conference basketball victory tonight by downing Illinois Wesleyan 56-52.

Wesleyan led 23-25 at the half-time of its first league contest of the season. Bill Gross with 19 points and Bud Schafer with 15 paced Wheaton. Fran Somers was high for Wesleyan with 15 points.

Champaign, Ill., Dec. 17—(AP)—Illinois, atoning for its only loss of the season, at Oklahoma earlier, trimmed the invading Sooners in a return intersectional basketball match 57-47 tonight.

Illinois, racking its fourth win in five starts, grabbed a 6-5 lead in the first 41 minutes, ballooned it to 28-18 at halftime and was never headed.

In absorbing its first defeat in three games, Oklahoma made only three field goals in 26 shots in the first half and seven out of 29 in the second. Oklahoma's Wayne Glasgow topped all scorers with 14 points, nine in the first section.

Glasgow fouled out with 13 minutes of playing time left. He was preceded by Walter Morris and Paul Merchant, Merchant, although held to four points, turned in a fine guarding job on Illinois' Bill Erickson, limiting him to three buckets.

Center Wally Osterkorn, the Illini's top scorer with a 13.13 average, added only six points with Marcus Freiburger and Bill Waters trailing him.

Illinois' scoring was well divided with Mack Polimer high with 10 points. Erickson fouled out with four minutes to go and Osterkorn left with 51 remaining.

Illinois lost 55-47 at Oklahoma a week ago.

Iowa Outclasses Western Reserve

Cleveland, Dec. 17—(AP)—Iowa's Hawkeyes outmanned and outclassed Western Reserve University's basketball team here tonight 97-57.

The game wasn't a contest after the first five minutes when the Redcats managed to get within one point of the visitors at 8-7. By halftime the Iowa sharp shooters led 44-27.

The victory was Iowa's third in four starts. Reserve has lost three of four.

Everett Cochrane, husky Iowa forward, led the winners in scoring with 20 points, including nine field goals. Frank Calsbeek, towering Hawkeye center, was right behind with 18 points. Joe Lesko topped the Redcats with 12.

Iowa used an even dozen players who figured in the scoring. Reserve was handicapped by the sidelining of its star scorer, Jim Cochrane, who suffered a broken arm against Buffalo last week.

Wisconsin Beats Marquette 62-45

Milwaukee, Dec. 17—(AP)—Center Don Rehfeldt hit for 19 points tonight to lead Wisconsin to a 62-45 basketball victory over Marquette before 6,000 fans at Milwaukee auditorium.

Wisconsin led all the way after getting off to a swift start, building up a 17-5 early lead to a 36-17 halftime margin.

Rehfeldt, using his southpaw hook shot, lobbed in nine of Wisconsin's first 17 points but was held to one basket in the second half.

Marquette narrowed the count to 43-40 in the second half but Wisconsin snuffed out the rally to pull ahead comfortably.

Center Francis Ramirez, paced Marquette with 15 points.

It was Wisconsin's fifth victory against one loss and marked Marquette's fourth defeat in seven games.

WESTERN KNOCKS PLATTEVILLE 76-66

JHS-Routt Cage Battle Wednesday Highlights Pre-Christmas Slate

Jacksonville high school and Routt basketball players will go Christmas shopping for their coaches Wednesday evening of this week!

It's going to be a merry Yule season for either Coach Paul Stroud of Routt or John Chapman of J. H. S. because Wednesday night their two cross-town rival quintets clash in an intra-city cage tussle that is sure to thrill fans to the quick, just as it has in the past.

Only one catch remains to blight the picture of this hardwood battle—the site has not yet been selected. Last night officials assured us that the game would surely be staged on the Routt, J.H.S. or I.S.D. gym, a very general statement.

Specific information concerning the whereabouts of the game will be handed the fans either Tuesday or Wednesday at the latest, Bob Kraushaar of the Jacksonville high school athletic corps assured Saturday night.

In the three years that these intra-city tilts have been resumed between the two local antagonists, Routt has won one game by one point and the Crimsons have copped another by a single tally.

The Rockets, who started slowly this season, proved that the sound of battle will ring throughout Morgan county when these two clubs lock horns Wednesday night and the noise will in no way be mistaken for the merry chime of Christmas.

Notre Dame, Army May Resume Play In A Few Years

By Ted Smith
New York, Dec. 17.—(AP)—The most discussed but unplayed football game of the year—Army versus Notre Dame—has popped up again.

But it looks as if the very discussion and debating is what stands in the way of reviving this staid sports contest.

"When things quiet down to the point where this game could be played under normal conditions, it may be played," said a man who is in a position to know. "The reason the series was interrupted was that things got out of hand."

It is not secret that Notre Dame wants to play it, and that Army is coy.

Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune, wrote in his column "there will be no official confirmation for a while, and in all probability there will be denials, but Army and Notre Dame will renew their football series in about three years. . . . It will be on a home and home basis. . . ."

In Washington sports commentator A. J. (Dutch) Bergman stated that an agreement to play the game had been reached between Gen. J. Lawton Collins, army chief of staff, and the Rev. John J. Cavanaugh, S. J., president of Notre Dame.

General Collins and Father Cavanaugh met before the Gridiron Club dinner in Washington last week, but afterwards Father Cavanaugh said: "One of General Collins' relatives is a priest at Notre Dame, and we discussed him and other topics, but certainly not the resumption of football relations. We just don't negotiate such things at this level."

Louis Exhibitions Bring Speculation As To Intentions

New York, Dec. 17.—(AP)—What goes with Joe Louis? Does he plan to come out of retirement and fight again for the world heavyweight title?

Boxing fans throughout the country—and outside the United States—are asking these questions.

Louis announced his retirement last spring. Ever since he has insisted he does not plan a comeback.

Why then does he engage in exhibitions? Why doesn't he hang up his gloves for good?

There is every indication a campaign has started to get Joe back in the ring for a title scrap.

Consider: Tex Sullivan, manager of Lee Oma, pulled his fighter out of a scheduled 10-round exhibition with Louis at Detroit last week. Sullivan claimed Louis had already come back and was fighting "real wars."

Next Jake Mintz, manager of Edward Charles, the NBA-recognized champ following Louis' announced retirement, called for a Louis-Chambers fight next summer to "revive the million dollar game" and to "satisfy the public and sports-writers."

Gophers Trounce Iowa State 67-44

Minneapolis, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Minnesota tonight won its third straight pre-conference basketball game by trouncing Iowa State 67 to 44.

The height advantage of the visitors was more than offset by the superior marksmanship and the stout defense of the Gophers. In command with a 19-point margin with seven minutes to go, Coach Ozzie Cowles used reserves the rest of the way. The final advantage was stretched to 23 points.

All of the 12 Gophers to see action figured in the scoring, with Whitey Skoog running up 13 points to become high man for the game.

Iowa State appeared to have difficulty getting close to the basket and their long tries missed the hoop repeatedly.

Leading the visitors' scoring efforts was stubby Don Ferguson, easily the most troublesome Iowan for the Gophers. He made a total of 11 points while holding Skoog to 13.

North Carolina team which boasts two such stars as Charlie Justice and Art Weiner and which battled Notre Dame 6-6 for a half.

It might be that Rice's reputation has benefited by that terrific showing Southern Methodist made against Notre Dame in the same Cotton Bowl two weeks ago. Rice trounced the Methodists 41-27 earlier in the season.

Oklahoma, which swept to 10 straight victories and was seriously extended only by Texas and Santa Clara, would appear to rate its point spread over Louisiana State in the classic at New Orleans. The Sooners were ranked second nationally, topped only by Notre Dame, and ahead of California's Rose Bowl eleven, in the final Associated Press poll for the year.

Only thing is, nobody knows just how good the Louisiana boys are. Conceivably they could supply the day's big upset.

California's six-point choice over Ohio State's Buckeyes, co-champions with Michigan of the Big Nine, is a tribute to a fine coaching job done by Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf on the Golden Bears, who reportedly are not blessed with anything approaching the speed of their bowl opponents.

Cal started off winning and never let up.

A comparison of scores against two mutual opponents, Southern Cal and Wisconsin, offers no real clue to the relative strength of the Bears and Buckeyes. California rallied to beat U.S.C. 16-10; Ohio State tied the Trojans, 13-13. California wallowed Wisconsin 35-20; Ohio State trounced the same Badgers 21-0.

Busy Trading Jam Changes Lineups In Major Leagues

New York, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Baseball's busiest trading jam since pre-war days promises to have an important effect on the 1950 pennant races in both major leagues.

Detroit became an American League contender by plugging its second base hole with Gerry Priddy. Both the Philadelphia A's and Chicago White Sox think they strengthened at third base. The St. Louis Browns banked much-needed cash and another parcel of young talent.

The six-man swap between the Boston Braves and New York Giants changed the complexion of the National League. No longer are the Giants the fence-busters of old. Manager Leo Durocher substituted a steady double play combination of shortstop Alvin Dark and second baseman Eddie Stanky at the expense of power.

Boston added zing to its batting order with outfielders Willard Marshall and Sid Gordon, who together blasted 38 homers for the Giants last season. The Braves replaced Dark with Buddy Kerr, a capable but bench-riding shortstop under Durocher.

In today's trades, the Detroit Tigers sent Dick Wakefield, the original bonus kid, to the New York Yankees for rookie first baseman Dick Kryhoski and the Pittsburgh Pirates purchased pitcher Frank Pappish from Cleveland.

More than a million dollars worth of players changed hands during the winter meetings. More moves still are to come.

First baseman Mickey Vernon of Cleveland is due to go as the Tribe is banking on Luke Easter for 1950.

Nobody expects Clark Griffith to sit pat at Washington with a last-place club even if it means letting go of pitcher Rae Scarborough and first baseman Eddie Robinson. The Yanks want both. So do others. New York has no more use for George Stinnett now that Gerry Coleman has come through in his fine style at second base.

Action of the St. Louis Cards in shipping Lou Klein to Cincinnati with outfielder Ron Northey for a 31-year-old Harry Walker, an ex-Card flycatcher, and a minor leaguer, hints of a deal to come.

AAC All-Stars Whip Browns 12-7

Houston, Tex., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Frankie Albert and Buddy Young passed and ran the All-America Conference All-Stars to a muddy 12 to 7 victory over the champion Cleveland Browns today in the Shamrock Charity Bowl.

A crowd of 10,000—most of them paying $15 a seat—sat through a driving rain to see the AAC All-Stars slap the second defeat of the season against the Browns, only champions the conference has ever known.

Albert quarterbacked the All-Stars to first and second period scores, aided primarily by the flashy running of Young. Cleveland's lone score came in the second on a 40-yard pass, Otto Graham to Dub Jones. When Lou Groza kicked the extra point, the Browns were ahead, 7-6, but it was the only time they were out in front.

Two Buffalo Bill players did all the scoring for the All-Stars. Halfback Chet Mutyryn plunged over from the 2-yard line in the first, and end Alton Baldwin took a 15-yard toss from Albert for the second.

Albert missed both his extra point tries.

Virginia Invitational Carded For January 2-6

Virginia—Principles and coaches of schools participating in the 12th annual Virginia invitational basketball tournament have completed the pairings, it was announced by Virginia Coach Cecil McVey Saturday.

The meet, which has drawn huge crowds for the past 12 years, will get underway Jan. 2 and continue on through the 6th. Eight teams are entered in the tournament.

Participating teams will be allotted a section of seats in order to facilitate seating in the Virginia gymnasium.

Because the tournament will be held in five days instead of the usual four, there will be only one game played each night of the semifinals, Wednesday and Thursday.

This affair promises to be one of the closest in years, if the ratings of the coaches are any indication of the entrants' comparative strength.

The first-round lineups: Monday—Bath vs. Meredosia (7 p.m.). Chandlerville vs. Astoria (8:30 p.m.). Tuesday—Ashland vs. Virginia (7 p.m.). Chambersburg vs. Pleasant Plains (8:30 p.m.).

Semi-finals will be run off Wednesday and Thursday with the consolation and championship bouts set for Friday.

Walker Will Not Play In Shrine Game

San Francisco, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Doak Walker, Southern Methodist's All-America football star, will not play for the West in the Shrine's East-West football classic here Dec. 31.

The Shrine committee said a charity horse has resulted in a calcium deposit in the athlete's knee and his doctor advised against playing. The injury kept Walker out of the SMU-Notre Dame contest.

Walker will be replaced on the West squad by Dick Gray, Oregon State halfback.

C. Of P. Finishes Perfect Season With 75-0 Victory

Honolulu, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Eddie Lebaron and College of the Pacific—a school ignored by bowl promoters—closed an undefeated, untied football season with a crushing 75-0 victory over University of Hawaii last night.

That gave the Tigers an 11-0 record and boosted their season's total to 575 points to opponents' 66. C.O.P. easily was the nation's leading scorer. And it wound up No. 10 in the Associated Press poll of the nation's top teams.

Lebaron, three-time Associated Press Little All-America quarterback, put on a great show. He even converted once, via dropkick.

With a record 28,000 fans looking on, he saved some of his best shots for the final quarter. Then he broke through center and raced 50 yards to Hawaii's 20. From there he lateraled to Don Brown, who scored untouched.

Sammy Snead Wins Vardon Trophy For Best Golf In 1949

Chicago, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Sammy Snead, the sweet-swinging from White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., today officially was crowned golf's top money-winner and captor of the coveted Vardon trophy in 1949.

The Professional Golfers' Association, which recently proclaimed Snead "golfer of the year," calculated that Sammy amassed $31,593 as he won six major meets and finished second or third in seven others.

The Vardon trophy went to Snead for his snappy average of 69.37 strokes for 73 eighteen-hole rounds. Runner-up to Snead in the cash-collecting column was National Open champion Cary Middlecott, whose $24,604 barley edged the third-spot harvest of $24,512 by fast-moving Johnny Palmer.

Palmer, an iron-nerved war veteran, finished second in the Vardon trophy competition with a 69.72 average for 80 rounds.

Fourth in money-winnings this year was Lloyd Mangrum with $22,248. Jimmy Demaret was fifth with $17,367.

Longer's Rebounding Highlights Comeback; Shouse, Grove Get 19

A boy named Don Longer found himself at the I.S.D. gymnasium in Jacksonville Saturday night!

Illinois college's lanky hoop artist Don Longer shot into the foreground as Coach Al Miller's pet here Saturday night when he rebounded the Blueboys to a 77-47 non-conference victory over the Preachers of Concordia, St. Louis.

Longer, who plays a lot of end during the off basketball season, had been having trouble getting his sights adjusted to the hardwood sport this year and it wasn't until in the second half against the visiting Preachers that he really came into his own.

Too much can't be said about Longer unless three other Blueboys are slighted when they should instead receive praise. Guards Bob Grove and Bill Shouse clipped the I.S.D. nets for 19 points apiece to lead scoring while Longer wasn't too far behind with 17, besides doing the majority of the rebounding.

Bill Gross also shines. The rugged Bill Gross also left his mark on the invading Concordians who were swept off their feet with the Hilltoppers' second-half surge. The Preachers fought the hosts to a 34-30 first half but couldn't stand the pace for the full route and fell further behind as the game progressed.

Leading by four points, the Miller-men came out after the intermission and piled up a 60-30 advantage before Concordian center Ron Goerss layed-up a short shot to tally for the Preachers after eight minutes of second half play had expired.

The veteran Blueboy five showed the crowd of approximately 600 enthusiasts everything in the book and some things that haven't yet been printed in that second half surge. Miller rested his regulars in the last minutes, playing his entire eleven-man squad.

Murray Holds Down Goerss. Goerss, 6-8 Concordia center, was held in check very effectively by the outstanding defensive play of Bob Murray. Don Longer and Bill Gross—seven inches shorter than Goerss—also took their turns at holding the big boy to a nine-point performance.

However brilliant the second half rally, Blueboy coach Miller suffered some tense moments in the early minutes of play.

The Hilltoppers started cold, missing their first eight tries at the basket. Concordia went ahead on two free throws, but Gross and Grove connected to put I.C. out front 9-6 in the first four minutes of play.

The Blueboys led 22-15 midway through the first half, but then the fun began. The undermanned Preachers—they carried only seven players to Jacksonville—sterned back into the ball game and came up 26-25 with six minutes remaining before the halftime break.

The score read 31-30 with two minutes to do, but Don Longer connected with a basket and free throw to put the locals out front 34-30 at the half.

That was the end of Blueboy fans' worries, for the veteran Hilltoppers put on a second half performance that would have done credit to Horatio Alger as they moved their record to four wins and two defeats.

Joe Brooks' Blueboy B squad dumped the Franklin Indians 81-39 in the preliminary.

Marquette's Head Football Coach, F. J. Murray, Quits

Milwaukee, Dec. 17.—(AP)—Frank J. Murray, Marquette university's veteran head football coach, resigned today. He will be succeeded by Lisle Blackburn, Sr., Hilltop line coach.

The announcement was made today by chairman Charles Coburn of the Marquette athletic board, who said the 4-year old Murray had requested and been granted a year's leave of absence. "To gain a much-needed rest," Coburn added it is hoped Murray will return to Marquette as a member of the teaching faculty after his leave.

Blackburn, 50, in accepting the appointment as head coach for a one-year tenure, said he might wait until the approach of spring practice in choosing his assistants.

"I have always been a great admirer of Coach Murray and am looking forward to receiving his continued advice and counsel relative to coaching and other problems," the new coach declared.

Murray is a native of Maynard, Mass., a graduate of Tufts college, a former graduate student at Harvard and Chicago and a onetime newspaperman. He came to Marquette from the faculty of West Division high school in 1920 and became head coach two years later after being an assistant. He remained until the 1936 season, when his team won the bid for the first Cotton Bowl game at Dallas. He then spent nine seasons as head coach of the University of Virginia, but resigned to return to Marquette in 1946.

Purdue Knocks Bradley From Unbeaten Ranks With 71 To 65 Victory
Peoria, Ill., Dec. 17.—(AP)—Purdue matted Bradley's dedication of a new $800,000 fieldhouse tonight by knocking the powerful Braves from basketball's unbeaten ranks 71-65.

Purdue, posting its third win in four starts, hit 23 baskets in 56 shots, dropping 16 out of 34 while rolling into a 41-38 halftime margin.

In losing its first game after four wins, Bradley disappointed a capacity throng of 8,300 fans but threatened to keep a rally rolling at the outset of the second period behind Paul Unruh and Bill Mann.

The Braves tied it 41-41. Then Horvie Williams, who slammed in four set shots in the first half, sank a 25-foot set and followed with a drive-in to push the Big Ten team ahead to stay 45-41.

With 10 minutes left, Bradley cut the edge to 54-52. Dick Axness then dropped two buckets and a free toss to ignite Purdue's closing surge.

Axness with 18 points, Andy Butchko with 15 and Williams with 14 paced Purdue's well balanced offense. Unruh with 19 and Mann with 18 topped Bradley.

Sixty-three personal fouls were called in the slam bang game. Purdue dropped 25 out of 37 free throw tries while Bradley made 25 out of 32.

Free throws missed: Purdue—Axness, Brewster, 2 Horn, Butchko, 4. Bradley—Butterfield, Banks, 2; Bradley—Unruh, Kelly, Mann, 4; Melchiorre, Prece.

By Richard Kleiner
NEA Staff Correspondent
New York —(NEA)— Dr. James Bender never had any trouble sleeping in his life. Never, that is, until a few weeks ago when he lay awake worrying about the deadline for the book he was writing. The book which cost him his sleep is called, "How to Sleep."

Although the book touches on all phases of sleeping—from the fine art of snoring to how to get children to go to bed—it is primarily designed for the aid and comfort of insomniacs.

"I believe very strongly," says Dr. Bender, a psychologist, "in the potential power of each one of us to alter the path of parts of our lives. Sleeping habits can be changed if we approach the matter with common sense."

For those who want to try, Dr. Bender has a 15-point program for producing potent pillow pounders. In 15 nutshells, here is what he recommends:

1. Sleep in a good bed. Make sure it's big enough for you.
2. Sleep on a pillow that fits you.
3. Dress your bed right. Dr. Bender even goes for whole hog, and advocates a daily change of linen for severe cases of non-sleeping.
4. Don't sleep in a room decorated in exciting colors. Pastel greens and blues are the most restful shades.

DR. JAMES BENDER: His own book kept him awake.

Dr. Bender says:

5. Keep the room dark. If necessary, buy and wear a pair of eyeshades.
6. Build a shrine to Morpheus. Which is Dr. Bender's way of saying that the bedroom should be strictly for sleeping; make it a pleasant, restful room, with things nearby that induce slumber.
7. Take a bath before going to bed. A bath is more relaxing than a shower, especially if a few drops of pine needle extract are added to the tub. The temperature of the water should be between 98 and 102 degrees.
8. Be the master of noise. A pair of ear stoppers help keep the room quiet.
9. Ventilate your room to suit yourself.

10. Try melotherapy. That means music, which hath charms to soothe the savage insomniac. Among the selections Dr. Bender suggests are MacDowell's "To a Water Lily" and Debussy's "Afternoon of a Fawn."

11. Make friends of your senses. In other words, rest them. Some ways you can do that are to brush your hair before retiring and to burn a stick of incense in the bedroom.

12. Eat a snack. But be careful. Dr. Bender advises the bedtime menu consist of a glass of skim milk and a plain cookie. If you're very tired, maybe two cookies.

13. Kid yourself along. Dickens, says Dr. Bender, couldn't sleep unless his bed pointed North. If you need a secret trick—like crawling around the bed 10 times—go to it.

14. Read yourself to sleep. A good book or a daily snoozepaper.

15. Make a happy event of going to bed. Look on sleep as a delightful escape from problems.

Besides the soporific Fifteen, Dr. Bender has other suggestions. "I have almost a religious fervor in the belief that relaxation exercises are a big help," he says.

Some ways Dr. Bender advocates relaxing are by standing on your head, or yawning, or blinking. Yawning, incidentally, is good for you, and you shouldn't try to swallow your yawns.

So, the next time you can't sleep, follow these simple instructions: Stand on your head, change the linen, paint the room blue, put on your eyeshades and ear stoppers, take a bath with pine needle extract, play some music, read a book, brush your hair, burn some incense, eat a snack, read a book and crawl around the bed 10 times.

By that time, it's morning. Zzzzzzz.

"Operator, I'd like to speak to Mr. John Doe's office in Chicago. The telephone number I think is Harrison 7-1234. Anybody that answers will be all right. My telephone number is 4567. Mrs. Jane Smith."

"Calling Chicago, Illinois, Harrison 7-1234."

Yes, in these days when toll facilities in certain places and at certain times are still congested, place your long distance call the easy way. If you don't know the telephone number at the distant point, say, "Calling Chicago, Illinois, the office of John Doe Company, 100 North Michigan avenue."

Or, if you want a particular person, "Calling Chicago, Illinois, Harrison 7-1234. I want to speak to John Doe."

The operator will ask you for your telephone number when she is ready. She may hold you for a full minute in an attempt to get a busy circuit released.

Not only will your long distance operator appreciate your co-operation, but you'll find the "easy way" will help you get better service.

Concord Plans Christmas Eve Carol Service

Concord—The Concord Youth Fellowship will present a Christmas Eve carol service on December 24, at 7 p. m. at the Methodist church in Concord. The candlelight service will tell the prophecy of Christ's coming and His nativity through Scripture and song.

About twenty-five persons will participate in the choir. A youth committee composed of Thelma Hamm, Barbara Nickel, Mona Kershaw, and Dean McAllister is in charge of all arrangements. All community residents are invited to come.

Twenty-four youth and adults gathered at the Methodist church for the regular meeting of the Concord Youth Fellowship last Monday night. Following a pot-luck supper, the members rehearsed for the Christmas eve service. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hadden were guests of the Fellowship.

Mrs. Pearl Smith, M. O. Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. John Brown attended the Reside-Kaplan wedding at Berea church, Sunday evening.

"And this will be our recreation room!"

Jack: "Whatta you mean, 'recreation'? You call that old furnace and all this ductwork fun? Besides, there's no room for a room here!"

Mac: "Hold on. I said, 'will be.' We're takin' this old battleship out, and replacing it with a modern Lennox Heating System!"

Jack: "So what?"

Mac: "So a Lennox'll take up just a tiny corner, way back there. Lennox Heating Systems are really compact, my friend. The one we're having installed is going to give us so much extra space down here that we'll have enough to fix up a dandy play room!"

Jack: "Go on—and I suppose you're inferring a Lennox can save anybody lots of extra space, and still keep 'em warm and comfortable. You're probably a special case!"

Mac: "Special, my foot! Why, there are complete Lennox systems that can be installed in small recesses, inside walls, beneath floors, even up in attics! What more d'ya want?"

Jack: "Not a thing, pal—except the name and address of the nearest guy that handles Lennox Heating Systems! He's got what I want!"

I Love My Doctor

By Evelyn Barkins

THE STORY: After our elopement, John and I searched long and fruitlessly until we found a suitable 4-room apartment to serve as home and office. We found one at last and the superintendent's wife, Freda Lang, took a liking to us and let us have it at a reasonable figure. I've just enjoyed John into promising to help me redecorate it.

VI
STOREKEEPERS, the small, personal, friendly kind, are my favorite people. For the price of a brush, or a few nails, or any other implement, one can receive a scholarly dissertation on anything from outhouses to portrait painting and roast pig.

Mr. Schmitt, in the general hardware store, was no exception. He welcomed me as a compatriot, and offered invaluable aid.

"Ach no, not in vain dose clumsy brushes," he said, as instinctively I chose the least likely ones. "but dese iss vot you need. Half the price and twice as good."

He produced two good-looking brushes, with the air of a fellow conspirator turning over secret documents.

"Paint?" he considered my next problem for a moment. "You vant already colored, or mix your own?"

"Just a minute," I said, and looked up the article in point in my magazine: "Anyone Can Paint a Room the Easy Way."

"I say mix my own," I announced. "It says here that you save money if you buy a lot of white paint and just add pigment."

"Shure, shure," Mr. Schmitt agreed, looking quite curiously at my literary consultant. "Und from dat you will do it?"

"Of course," I said, showing him the article. "And I can paper too from on page 96 of this magazine."

"Vell," said Mr. Schmitt judiciously scratching his shaggy gray head, "maybe. In my day, for something like this ve used common sense, a couple of directions and experience showed vot else dere vas. Und now, it's like a big job vid pages und pages to read, and no common sense and no experience."

I had intended to merely deposit my purchases in the apartment, with the idea of starting work that night when John was due to meet me there. Then I got one of my unfortunate inspirations: Why not paint the kitchen right now and surprise John with the finished product when he arrived? Dreamily, I envisioned his startled: "But darling, when did you do it?"

"This afternoon," I would say casually, flipping the brush back in the can and smoothing the folds of my skirt.

I TOLD myself: Anyone can smear a brush around and get a room finished. Dressed as I was, and humming cheerfully as if I were about to water a plant, I began to undo the can of white paint.

"Well, well, and what are you doing now?" a voice near me asked. It was Freda, the superintendent's wife.

"I'm going to paint the kitchen," I told her.

"In that dress?" she gasped, pointing to my tulle-trimmed silk print. "For heaven's sake, you wait and I'll bring you a coverall."

"Oh," I said very brightly, never having thought of that before. But that wasn't exactly in my daydream of how I would appear before John when he came.

She turned and walked away, to reappear in a few minutes with a tremendous looking kind of smock. We rolled up the sleeves, giggled over how I looked, and then after making my proper thanks and apologies, I casually started to paint as if I were simply going into the bathroom to brush my teeth.

What the magazines didn't tell me was that paint drips—all over the painter. When you wield a brush, small rivulets of paint roll down and ruin the smooth surface of the wall. Reaching up and down and up and down and up and down makes your arm feel as if it's attached to a dead weight, which will sooner or later detach it from your body. Painting is messy and sticky; it clings to your hair and your hands and your clothes.

Although I felt as bitterly betrayed by my magazines as Julius Caesar by Brutus, I painted on with grim determination.

As John entered, I remembered my foolish plan to flip the brush in the can and take my bows. Instead, I was a horrible mess. Just looking at his neat, clean clothes made me want to weep, and when he innocently said: "Hello, sweetheart, why you've almost got one wall done!" I started to cry aloud into my can of paint.

John didn't dare come close to me, since I was all covered with paint by then, and we both had too much respect for his best blue suit. But he consoled me from the doorway.

"Just you wait," he said, "and I'll get to work too. Then we'll finish fast. Poor darling, you're all tired out. Did you eat?"

I shook my head. "I can't anyway," I wailed. "I'm covered with paint."

Just then Freda came back again. "I thought I saw you come in, doctor," she said, and handed him a coverall with a big grin. "And here's a sandwich for you," she said, turning to me and placing it on the drainboard. "I put some turpentine in the bathroom. You can wash the paint off there."

After she left, I cleaned up enough to settle down with her ham on rye, and I could almost feel my disposition improving bite by bite. "Mind over matter," I thought as I ate. "Bosh!"

John, meanwhile, carefully donned his coverall as if it were an operating room gown, and tackled the next wall as if it were an anesthetized patient. The role of peaceful watcher appealed to me far more than that of an active worker, but as soon as I finished eating, I pitched in too.

LABOR'S SHARE IN BUILDING COST
New York—(AP)—The labor portion of construction cost is about the same today as 20 years ago. Myron L. Matthews of the Dow Service Building Reports, finds the percentage of building cost involved in payrolls on the site varies among projects, but the average has ranged between 32 per cent and 38 per cent. "For one-family houses averaging under $5,000 without land," he says, "the payroll ranges around 40.7 per cent, as against 32.5 per cent for houses in the $5,000 to $10,000 group, and 30.7 per cent for houses costing $10,000 and over. Labor cost in relation to total cost has been greater on large-scale operations than on small projects. The higher percentages were experienced in the admittedly 'make-work' housing projects of the Public Works Administration in the 1935-1937 period."
